ACCREDITING COMMISSION for COMMUNITY and
JUNIOR COLLEGES

Dear President Serban:

The Accrediting Commission for Community and Junior Colleges, Western Association of Schools and Colleges, at its meeting January 6-8, 2010, reviewed the institutional Self Study Report and the report of the evaluation team which visited Santa Barbara City College Monday, October 19 Thursday, October 22, 2009. The Commission took action to reaffirm accreditation.

The college is commended for an effective program review model that links program review to resource allocation and college planning, for the annual review of the college's achievement of its goals and objectives as identified in the college plan, for its community services programs, and for creating an environment in which the entire college community is focused on student achievement and learning.

Each comprehensive evaluation Santa Barbara City College should submit the Midterm Report by October 15, 2012. The Midterm Report describes the status of progress on college-identified plans for improvement or areas of concern expressed in the Self Study Report, and forecasts where the college expects to be by the time of the next comprehensive evaluation.

The college conducted a comprehensive self study as part of its evaluation process. The self study report and plans for improvement or areas of concern included in its self study reports be used to support the continuing improvement of the college. The next comprehensive evaluation of the college will occur during Fall 2015.
